DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-9 and 11-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

3. In claim 1, from which the balance of the claims depend, the variable "o" in the formulas for the claimed (co)polymer is not defined in the claims. Without defining all the variables in the formula, applicant's claimed (co)polymers are indefinite.

4. In addition, the term "obtainable" in claim 9 renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear if applicant is actually claiming the copolymer obtained by reacting the polymers of claim 1, or claiming one that may or may not be obtained from the polymers.

5. Finally, claims 8 and 11 provide for the use of the polymers of claim 1, but, since the claims do not set forth any steps involved in the method/process, it is unclear what method/process applicant is intending to encompass. A claim is indefinite where it merely recites a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced.

Claims 8 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed recitation of a use, without setting forth any steps involved in the process, results in an improper definition of a process, i.e., results in a claim which is not a proper process claim under 35 U.S.C. 101. See for example Ex parte Dunki, 153 USPQ 678 (Bd.App. 1967) and Clinical Products, Ltd. v. Brenner, 255 F. Supp. 131, 149 USPQ 475 (D.D.C. 1966).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

7. Claims 1-9 and 11-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by SHOBI et al. (JP 05279414 or JP 05247121) and under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Schulte et al. US 2006/0160974.

While applicant's claimed copolymer is indefinite, it appears that each of SHOBI et al. (See the abstracts) and Schulte et al. (See ¶ 10) do teach the claimed polyvinyl ester/alcohol (co)polymers.

Thus, the requirements for rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(b and e) are met.
